I. Introduction

Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) is a broad term used to describe a company's efforts to improve society in some way. It is the effort made by companies to improve the living conditions of the local area in which they operate and the society at large. These efforts can range from donating money to non-profits to implementing environmentally-friendly policies in the workplace. The activities taken up as part of corporate social responsibility reflect the intent to create a positive impact on society without seeking any commensurate monetary benefits.

The Company's objective is to pro-actively support meaningful socio-economic development in India and enable a larger number of people to participate in and benefit from India's economic progress. This is based on the belief that growth and development are effective only when they result in wider access to opportunities and benefit a broader section of society.

The Corporate Social Responsibility Policy (CSR Policy) of the Company sets out the framework guiding the Company's CSR activities. The Policy also sets out the rules that need to be adhered to while taking up and implementing CSR activities.

II. Background

- a) Sec. 135 of The Companies Act, 2013 requires both public and private companies in India which have either
- i. Net worth of INR 5 billion or more or
 - ii. Turnover of INR 10 billion or more or
 - iii. Net profits of 50 million or more

Within any of the three financial years, to contribute 2% of their average net profits of the three preceding financial years to Corporate Social Responsibility initiatives or specify their reasons for not spending that amount in their Board of Director's annual reports.

- b) The qualifying private company having only two directors on its Board shall constitute its CSR committee with two such directors. The CSR Committee shall formulate and recommend to the Board, a policy which shall indicate the activities to be undertaken (CSR Policy); recommend the amount of expenditure to be incurred on the activities referred and monitor the CSR Policy of the company. The Board is responsible to take into account the recommendations made by the CSR Committee and approve the CSR Policy of the company.
- c) The Companies \(Corporate Social Responsibility Policy\) Rules, 2014 ("the Rules") further clarifies that:
- The activities that can be done by the company to achieve its CSR obligations include eradicating extreme hunger and poverty, promotion of education, promoting gender equality and empowering women, reducing child mortality and improving maternal health, combating human immunodeficiency virus, acquired immune deficiency syndrome, malaria and other diseases, ensuring environmental sustainability, employment enhancing vocational skills, social business projects, contribution to the Prime Minister's National Relief Fund or any other fund set up by the Central Government or the State Governments for socio-economic development and relief and funds for the welfare of the Scheduled Castes, the Scheduled Tribes, other backward classes, minorities and women and such other matters as may be prescribed.

Also, preference should be given to local areas and the areas where the company operates. The Company may also choose to associate with 2 or more companies for fulfilling the CSR activities provided that they are able to report individually.

The CSR Committee shall also prepare the CSR Policy in which it includes the projects and programmes which is to be undertaken, prepare a list of projects and programmes which a company plans to undertake during the implementation year and also focus on integrating business models with social and environmental priorities and process in order to create share value.
